

The Art and Devotion of the Stations of the Cross

An interactive presentation reflecting on the historical impact of this traditional devotion on the faith life of Christians and its place in church art around the world. The presentation ends with a unique celebration of the Stations of the Cross.

